VIEWS MEET THIS MORNING AND ORGANIZE

Testimony Being Taken This Afternoon in Bridge
Case.

COMMISSIONERS ON SCENE

All the viewers from both Fayette and Washington counties were present this morning to view the Belle Vernon bridge, with a view of having it declared free. An organization was effected by electing D. M. Cempsey of Clayville president, and Charles B. Franks of Leiserville, Fayette county, secretary. The other view is by S. D. Taylor, Burgettstown; J. V. Johnston, Washington; J. R. Byne, Elverson, and Samuel W. Hershaw, Uniontown.

The view of the bridge was made soon after organization and adjournment was taken until this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock when the hearing of testimony was taken up.

The Washington county commissioners are present, with their solicitors, I. W. Baum, not to oppose the freeing of the bridge, but to see that no gold brick is unloaded upon the county. County Engineer George J. Chaney is also present as well as the attorney for the Washington county side bridge people, Alex. Templeton.

There are a number of Charleroi people present this afternoon.

WARM POLITICAL FIGHT AT DONORA

Factional Contest Developed
Over School Director Nomination.

At the primary election a factional fight developed in Donora that will be carried to the municipal election this month. The contest arose over the nomination of Republican candidates for school directors, in which the banking interests are said to be involved, for the purpose of controlling the school board treasurer. So hot was the contest that the count of ballots showed that one of the candidates backed by one faction won over the other by a single vote. As some disputes had arisen during the count as to the validity of certain ballots, petitions were presented to the county commissioners for a recount last week, which was granted.

This did not settle the question, however, the recount showing a tie between the two contestants, O. C. Frazier and J. B. McCune. Frazier was the one who had the majority of one in the first count, and now both are and McCune must appear before the county commissioners tomorrow and cast lots as to which will be the regular nominee on the Republican ticket.

In the meantime the opponents of Frazier have come into the field with an opposition ticket under the head of a Citizen's ticket, and his name has also been filed as a candidate on an Independent ticket. The factional fight will be again threshed out at the election the 22nd of this month.

TRACK TORN UP BY WRECK

Traffic on Redstone Division Demoralized by Accident.

Through two freight cars jumping the track at Tipton on the Redstone branch on the Monongahela division of the P. & E. this morning and tearing up the track in a considerable distance, traffic was demoralized. Passenger traffic was especially affected, and it was impossible for Uniontown trains to get through until late last night, transfers being necessary.

The wreck occurred at about 4 o'clock. It is said it was caused by the too long freight cars, and on great curves in the track. On the Redstone branch there is but one track and wrecks of the kind are not infrequent.

The California Girls

The California Girls, Burlesque, the biggest and swiftest spot in the burlesque wheel, will be at the Coyle Theatre next Saturday night. If you are looking for something to dispel that tired feeling and drive away your cares, be sure and see the California Girls. The girls show, best of all ever even with a small organization. This stands pre-eminent and alone, chuck full of bright, intelligent surprises in music and comedy. All old ideas discarded, scenery carried for the entire production. A show for jaded people, the acme of burlesque excellence, undoubtedly out of the reach of all imitators.

WIN A BIG BUNCH OF BONUS VOTES AT START

Three Days Left to Work on Extra Vote Offer—Don't Stop with Winning a Single 10,000—
You get That Much for Every $15.00 You Turn in.

BY V. H. AUSTIN.

Someone is going to get an elegant automobile or a beautiful Boston Piano for a little time spent hustling, and many are going to win valuable prizes. WHY NOT YOU? A little work every day among your friends and acquaintances will work wonders.

The offer of extra votes is bringing the live ones out because they see that it is better to work hard now when it counts so much than to wait till later when the work will be more difficult.

Those who are in the contest at the start have the advantage of a clear field and do not have to listen to that story about their prospects, having already given their subscriptions to someone else.

Do not be satisfied with one of the certificates for 10,000 votes, but put in your hardest ticks now and earn several of them. The ones who hold off working till a later date will have to do just double the work that it takes now to get votes. Some of the candidates let a little cold or wet weather put a stop to their efforts, but the live ones keep right on plugging along and earn votes while the less zealous ones are in a peaceful state of coma. Remember the proverb,

"It takes a live fish to swim up stream, but any dead one can float down."

Don't be a dead one. The contestant who secures the greatest results is the one, who by confidence in their own ability, inspires the confidence of their friends. In a contest of this kind the assistance of your friends is of inestimable value to you.

Show them that you are willing to help yourself, then they will gladly assist you.

Be sure to vote your coupons before they expire, the date of expiration is on every coupon.

SLAV LABORER IS KILLED BY TRAIN

Engineer Sees Him on Tracks
but Not Soon Enough to Stop.

Steve Balazovich, a Slavish laborer 25 years old formerly of Charleroi, was run down by a shifting engine on the Monongahela division of the Pennsylvania railroad at Walton yesterday. The engineer saw a man lying on the track a short distance ahead and reversed his lever, but was unable to stop in time, and the locomotive passed over his body. How the man had happened in the position none seemed to know. The body was taken to the undertaking rooms of H. R. Abraham in Elizabeth, where some friends identified him, and undertaker M. T. Crowley of Charleroi was called for.

The body was brought here last night. The funeral will be held from the Slavish Catholic church here Thursday morning 9 o'clock, with interment in Calvary cemetery. Balazovich was a well known foreigner, and was a member of the Slavish society of this place. He was formerly employed in the Charleroi Coal mines.

WANTS LAW ENFORCED

Rev. Boblitt in Paper to Ministers Speaks For Anti-Treating Law.

At the meeting of the Ministerial Association yesterday afternoon, Rev. H. C. Boblitt of the First Christian church read a paper along the line of civic reform. Rev. Boblitt said "things" that many people do not know of, and made suggestions for the strengthening out of various matters in town.

In enumerating some of the things that are in need of regulation he suggested an increase in our police force. He said that it was a physical impossibility for the police patrolmen which we now have to properly patrol any considerable portion of the town.

On the subject of the anti-treating law in the State, Rev. Boblitt said: "Not a cent of the drunkness comes from the treating habit. There exists a state law positively punishing it. District Attorney A. Nelson informed me last week that if we would make formal request of the judges of this district that the constables would be instructed to enforce the law, it would be accomplished."

The subject of Sunday closing was taken up yesterday and a suggestion made that the State should pass a law that would close all stores, restaurants, and places of amusement on Sunday. Another suggestion was that of the prohibition of dancing and other amusements on Sunday.

Rev. Boblitt deprecated the existence of alleged immoral theatrical performances as well as the existence of immoral "dives" and "joints" and advised the employment of good detectives to ferret out the disorderly places and rid the community of them.

It was reported at the meeting that

TRADES UNION TALKS ABOUT HIGH PRICES

Meat Problem will be Referred Back to Locals for Settlement.

CONTRACT IS PRESENTED

The Central Trades Council of Charleroi at their meeting last night as predicted in the Mail took up the meat problem for discussion, but in so doing referred it back to the various locals for settlement. The matter was talked over, and reports were made of what other cities had been doing.

The plan of referring the matter back to the various locals was most favored and consequently was adopted. The locals will likely take up the matter soon, and possibly establish a boycott against the product. The Clerks' union exhibited the contract which has been prepared for the signatures of the merchants. The contract is for the better adjustment of conditions between the store employees and their employers.

The wage scale is not touched upon. The Trades Council appointed a committee of three consisting of D. H. Glunt, H. Silverman, and J. P. Ferry to act with a committee of the Clerks' union, consisting of V. J. Shores, Walter Jack, Frank Taylor, Earl Taylor and Misses Grace O'Donnell and Victorine Hantisse to present the contract to the merchants and if possible reach agreements with them.

Controller Saves Money

By the reduction of the county tax levy three-quarters of a mill from what it was last year, the county commissioners have not only demonstrated their good business management and judgement, but the condition also shows that the office of county controller was an economic move and will have the effect of keeping down public expenses. The argument advanced in some quarters that the office is an unnecessary expense to the taxpayers is thoroughly exploded by the reduction of the county tax levy for the current year.

Since the operation of the office of controller many things have operated for the public good. Not only did every court house department look more sharply after its receipts and collections, but the expenditures were more carefully considered and made to the best possible advantage. In addition to this a check was immediately put upon the more or less loose methods that always prevailed in dealing with constables, justices and other officials who are responsible to the county. This had the effect of stopping numerous small leaks and very materially increasing county receipts. This, with the prudent and economic administration of the county commissioners, has created a standard for all future administrations to follow.

Try Charleroi's Plan

Donora, if reports are true, is all stirred up over a factional fight for school director. The real cause of the fight is said to be inspired by the banking interests in order to get the deposits of the school treasurer, and the result is said to be the cause of some hard feelings and contentions among citizens and neighbors who ought to be united for the promotion of the public interests of the town. If this fight continues, it will be a question of a house divided against itself.

Charleroi at one time went through very much the same experience. Both the school board and the borough council elected a treasurer to whom a commission was paid, and there was a strife among the banking interests for the control of the deposits. Finally one of the banks offered to perform the office of treasurer for no commission, and the cashier was elected treasurer. This did not end the contention for the business, but soon the council and school board hit upon the method of rotating the election of treasurer among the three banking institutions of the town, and since then peace and harmony in local politics has reigned supreme.

Donora is in a position to follow Charleroi's example. It is probable that the banks there would be willing to perform the office of treasurer for both the borough and school board for the sake of the business it would

A Popular Move

The Young Men's Social Union of St. Mary's Episcopal church has hit upon a form of entertainment that is not only most enjoyable, but one whose field is practically limitless. This is talks on reminiscences and experiences by local people on personal and practical subjects. They are both entertaining and instructive, and have touched a popular chord. Travel, the professions and business topics have already been drawn upon, and military life is the subject of the talk of this week's meeting.

When the great industrial importance of this community is realized, it can readily be seen what might be accomplished in the way of awakening interest and arousing ambition among young men. Here are all the possibilities of great careers as industrial captains, right at our very doors. In the mammoth glass factories and steel mills, with their various departments, and the rich coal mines, are opportunities for the greatest possible development of the mechanical arts that exists anywhere on the continent. The highest degree of scientific skill and genius is employed here, and every quarter of the globe is drawn upon for talent to turn out the products of this valley.

All of this is available to any young man who may desire to take advantage of it. The demand for bright, alert young fellows for expert training was never greater, and a career of the highest order can be commenced right in Charleroi. The effort of Rev. Shey, the rector of the church, who has instituted this move to stimulate the mind and inspire the ambition of his young men by showing them the opportunities that are available to all, is a most praiseworthy action.

TAX LEVY FIXED IN THIS COUNTY

The county commissioners have fixed the tax levy for the year of 1910 at 3 3-4 mills, divided as follows: General purposes, 1 1-4 mills; bonds, 1 mill; roads, one-half mill. The levy for 1909 was 4 1-4 mills, making a reduction of three-quarters of a mill for the current year.

PUNKSUTAWNEY PROPHET GETS TO GAZE LONG AND EARNESTLY AT SHADOW

The groundhog saw his shadow. He climbed out of his warm winter quarters early this morning, squatted on the ground, blinked at the sun, got up, took a turn around, noted his resemblance to an African cannibal king in his shadow, then sneaked into his hole again, there to remain six weeks longer. That is, if we believe prediction, this weatherwise prophet of Punksutawney did all this, and we are to have cold weather for the next six weeks.

Not Since the Flood.

Sir Henry Irving once received what he at the time considered a very palpable snub, delivered him by a highlander. While touring in Scotland the actor visited some of the notable traditional scenes associated with Shakespearean drama. As a matter of course one of the first pilgrimages was to the blasted heath where Macbeth met the witches. In an agreeable mood Sir Henry as they drove along turned smilingly to his driver.

"Are there any witches about now?" he asked.

The driver whipped up his horses.

"Not since the flood," he replied in his curt Scots way.

"Ess," she coyly answered.

"Not since the string," he commanded.

Just at present you're too high.

There's a possible chance for even the great Dr. Wiley being mistaken when he says that if we quite eating meat, we will become a nation of mollycoddles.

One way to rid a community of a selling-below-cost competitor is to let him have the work at his price or a little less.

The boys who ran away from their homes in Charleroi taking with them among other things a telescope, a rifle, and a book of prayer, were evidently going prepared to meet in turn if occasion should offer, any kind of gent, an astronomer, an Indian or a preacher.

Some fellow has bronched the subject of getting Peary a job and making him work now that he is back home from the north. Might not be a bad idea.

While we have heard of practically everything else concerning the census, no one has seen fit as yet to tell us when we are going to know how many people live in the first voting precinct.

If Uncle Joe Cannon is as ugly as the cartoonists would have us believe he is, there could be no pleasure in seeing him. The ugliest man we ever saw, however, was the smartest.

The smallpox scare is spreading. Whether it is the disease or the thought of living and being pock marked that is troubling people most is a hard problem to solve.

There is actually more politics in arranging a big fight than there is in the fight for Assembly.

TAX LEVY FIXED IN THIS COUNTY

The county commissioners have fixed the tax levy for the year of 1910 at 3 3-4 mills, divided as follows: General purposes, 1 1-4 mills; bonds, 1 mill; roads, one-half mill. The levy for 1909 was 4 1-4 mills, making a reduction of three-quarters of a mill for the current year.

Not Particular.

Mme. Calve at a ladies' luncheon was condoned by an elderly splinter on the ground that a laudatory article about her had not been very subtle or discriminating.

"I know well," said the spinster, smiling behind her glittering spectacles, "that only discriminating praise counts as praise with you."

"Don't talk about discriminating praise," answered Mme. Calve. "Fulsome flattery is good enough for me."—Washington Star.

Absorbing.

"Is the new filing system a success?"
"Great!"
"And how's business?"
"Oh, we've stopped business to attend to the filing system."—Boston Traveler.

PUNXSUTAWNEY PROPHET GETS TO GAZE LONG AND EARNESTLY AT SHADOW

The groundhog saw his shadow. He climbed out of his warm winter quarters early this morning, squatted on the ground, blinked at the sun, got up, took a turn around, noted his resemblance to an African cannibal king in his shadow, then sneaked into his hole again, there to remain six weeks longer. That is, if we believe prediction, this weatherwise prophet of Punxsutawney did all this, and we are to have cold weather for the next six weeks.

Not Since the Flood.

Sir Henry Irving once received what he at the time considered a very palatable snub, delivered him by a highlander. While touring in Scotland the actor visited some of the notable traditional scenes associated with Shakespearean drama. As a matter of course one of the first pilgrimages was to the blasted heath where Macbeth met the witches. In an agreeable mood Sir Henry as they drove along turned smilingly to his driver.

"Are there any witches about now?" he asked.
The driver whipped up his horses.
"Not since the flood," he replied in his curt Scots way.

The Elemental Feminine.

Arthur, aged four, and Louise, aged two and a half, were disputing over a string which Louise claimed. All threats and force on Arthur's part were useless; she would not give up. After a moment he used guile.
"Wees," he said, "will you be my little wife?"
"Ess," she coyly answered.
"Then give me the string," he commanded.
And she gave it without a murmur.—Lippincott's.

CAUSES 95 PER CENT OF DISEASES

Advice Concerning Stomach Troubles and How to Remedy Them

Do not neglect indigestion which leads to all sorts of ills and complications. An eminent doctor once said that ninety-five percent of all the ills of the human body have their origin in a disordered stomach. A physician who made a specialty of stomach troubles, particularly dyspepsia, after years of study perfected the formula from which Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are made.

Our experience with Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets leads us to believe them to be the greatest remedy known for the relief of acute indigestion and chronic dyspepsia. Their ingredients are soothing and healing to the inflamed membranes of the stomach. They are rich in pepsin, one of the greatest digestive aids known to medicine. The relief they afford is almost immediate. Their use with persistency and regularity for a short time brings about a cessation of the pains caused by stomach disorders.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets will insure healthy appetite, aid digestion and promote nutrition. As evidence of our sincere faith in Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, we ask you to try them at our risk. If they do not give you entire satisfaction, we will return you the money you paid us for them, without question or formality. They come in three sizes, prices 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain them only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

POLITICAL FOG NOW LIFTING

Demand by Senator Penrose
That Congress Get to Work Is Bearing Fruit

NEW OLEO BILL PROPOSED

Pennsylvania's Senior Senator Meets the Demands of the Government and the Grangers in a Measure Introduced Last Week.

Evidences are accumulating that the crusade against President W. H.
Taft and his administration at Washington is abating. The confusion into which the administration and the Republican party had been plunged by what appeared to be an organized attack of political discontents, aided and abetted by publications and advertising mediums which were out of joint with the administration's policies, is rapidly clearing away and political conditions at the national capital are normal.

The Ballinger-Pinchot controversy over the best method for conserving the country's resources seemed to be the main peg upon which the political trouble-makers were hanging their grievances, but that controversy is now in the hands of a Congressional committee and is being aired for all it is worth and more. The testimony, so far taken tends to dwarf its importance, yet the committee charged with the inquiry has determined to get to the bottom of the alleged scandal and the integrity of the committee is the best possible guarantee that the inquiry will be thorough and that the finding, whatever it may be, will be accepted by the whole people. The policy of the national administration has not been questioned. The quarrel has been between minor officials and it is absolutely certain that the side securing a re-election at the hands of the country will be approved by the Taft administration and by the people.
This conviction, accepted on every hand, has to a large extent quieted the disturbances at Washington and is making ridiculous the magazines and publications which have been hooted upon at Mr. Taft from behind the minor officials who are at war largely for war's sake.

When President Taft at two weeks ago called into conference United States Senator Peter Penrose, now generally accepted as the leader of the Republican party in the north, and considered plans to allay the annoying discontent of the disturbers, including the advertising magazines, were promptly put to rest. Since then the political fog has been lifting. It will be recalled that when Senator Penrose returned from his conference with the President the Republican leader suggested that the Republicans in both branches of Congress should get to work. That order was taken freely and in good faith, and the Republican administration and the recognized leaders of the Republican party have been going ahead without strife or contention for the greatest good for the greatest number, and the disturbers are quiet largely because they have run short of grist.

Since the Taft-Penrose conference the postal savings bank bill, an administration measure, and probably one of the most important propositions of recent years, has been making rapid headway in the United States senate. The bill contemplating a bureau of mines, an important piece of legislation for which Congressman George F. Huff, of Westmoreland, has labored industriously for two terms, has been passed finally in the lower house at Washington and has gone to the senate with the indorsement of the organized miners of the nation.
Other measures, probably of less importance, have been pushed along in the legislative branch of the nation's government and the administrative branch has not faltered or hesitated in its work.

The advertising magazines which have been commenting and promoting the political discontents really seem to have gone just a step too far. The blind senator from Oklahoma, Mr.
Gore, a Democrat, has been one of their pet trouble makers. Senator Gore last week proposed a plan for inquiry into the charges with regard to the cost of handling periodicals by the postoffice department. Senator Gore was delighted to have his resolution referred to the committee on postoffices of which Senator Penrose is chairman and it is practically certain that with the Republican leader acting in harmony with the Democratic leader and chief disturber, there will be a distinct illumination on the subject of what might be termed "freight rates on advertising matter."

Senator Penrose last week introduced a bill regulating the manufacture and sale of oleomargarine. The bill contains the recommendations of the treasury department and meets all the demands of the grange associations of the country. Under the bill colored oleomargarine is taxed 10 cents a pound and uncolored oleomargarine is taxed one-quarter of a cent a pound. A section of the bill prohibits compromising any case and requires that all cases shall be brought to trial and adjudicated by the courts.

The Republican workers of the western end of Pennsylvania were gathered on Saturday night last at the banquet of the Young Men's Republican Club in Pittsburgh. The gathering was a great one. It was designed to celebrate the birthday of the jamed William McKinley, United States Senator Charles Dick, of Ohio, a friend and confidant of the dead President, was the orator of the evening. Senator Dick told in an interesting way of the raids made against the administrations of Harrison and McKinley by those who had not gotten what they wanted from those Presidents and showed the similarity of those assaults to the ones now aimed at the Taft administration. Senator Dick insisted that the Republicans should disregard the assaults of the self-seeking demagogues who are now endeavoring to disrupt the Republican party and continued by saying:

"I believe that if loyal Republicans will do their duty present misunderstandings resulting from misrepresentations and efforts to disrupt our party will go for naught, and as the broad-minded policies of the present administration, progressive in the true sense, comes to be better understood, the country will stand by President Taft, upholding his hands in his honest and patriotic endeavors for the welfare of his people and the country at large."

Look Up.
The man who always looks down cannot aspire. There is a purpose in our noble aspirations. The unattained beckons us onward. To look up means to lift up. "Tis not what man does which exalts him," says Browning, "but what man would do." Our standard will rise higher and higher as we go from strength to strength. Our longings foretell our destiny. We must look down at times to get a clear idea of life's details, but if we wish to see their proper relation to the great issues of life we must look up. If we simply look at our feet, how limited becomes our vision! By lifting up our eyes on high we see the vast arch that spans the heavens. It is then we see with Emerson "what majestic beauties daily wrap us in their bosom," or with Ruskin study "the mystery of distant mountain blue," hear with Tennyson the sea waves break upon "the cold gray stones" or stand entranced with Newton until the stars rise—Rev. J. W. Roberts, Congregationalist, New York.

him polishing the belongings on the sidboard.
"Improving the shining hours, are "No, sir," replied the doctor. "I'm

"E'm!" ejaculated the professor.
"Whose are they?"
"They're ours."
"Well, isn't that what I said?"—Chi-

FOUR SEASONS OF SUCCESSFUL RUN

"The Convict's Daughter," the successful and popular comedy drama, comes to the Coyle Theatre tomorrow night. It is interesting and intense throughout. From the rise of the curtain the expectation and suspense of the audience is kept at a high pitch by a constant succession of thrilling situations which are worked out very cleverly. The sensational escape of the convict from the prison wall, the swiftly running freight train, is without question the acme of stage mechanism. The play is entirely free from situations which cannot be reconciled to human consistency, and in comparison it ranks far above plays of a like nature. A liberal amount of comedy is interspersed to keep up the interest. Strong situations and thrilling climaxes together with startling mechanical and electrical effects, help to make a perfect production. The secret of the popularity and financial strength of the play is its intrinsic worth as an amusement enterprise. The piece has real merit and with the exceptionally strong cast, especially engaged to interpret the same, should and undoubtedly will, pack the house.
